

David Clark Company Wireless Headset Communication Systems provide maximum freedom and mobility, as well as clear communication, for all Industry maintenance personnel involved in inspection, repair, overhaul operations, as well as for aircraft, vehicle, vessel movement in and out of any storage or overhaul facilities. Safety and efficiency are dramatically improved as maintenance personnel benefit from crisp, clear and hands-free communication without being tethered to a platform. Serving all industries in Manufacturing, Maintenance, Support, Operation requirements etc.

KEY COMPONENTS

Key Features

- Hands-free, full-duplex intercom – DECT based technology
- Crisp, clear communication in demanding environments
- Rugged, durable construction – marine-grade components
- Radio interface or intercom-only configurations
- Secure signaling prevents unwanted interception
- Compatible with most HF, UHF and VHF mobile radios
- Up to four users per Gateway – expanded capability
- Reliable working range of up to 300 feet (approx. 100m) from Gateway

Some Industry Sectors

- Mining
- Vehicle / Aircraft / Vessel Manufacturing
- Utilities (Power / Water)
- Telecommunications
- Aerospace and Defence
- Oil and Gas
- Emergency Services
- Energy Sector
- And Many More

